

AT&T Employee Resource Groups

	ABILITY advances, advocates and educate for individuals with disabilities		ICAE brings awareness and education to the Native American community		Project Management Network provides training for PMP certification and to earn continuing education units
	AT&T Veterans serve the veteran/military community		InspirASIAN fosters development, education and leadership opportunities to Asian & Pacific Islanders employees		Professional 50 Forward supports our multi-generational workforce
	FACES promotes culture, community, charity, and education in the Filipino community		LEAGUE champions diversity, professional development and community involvement in the LGBTQ community		The NETWORK encourages African American and all diverse employees to attain their personal and professional goals
	Faith@Work brings people of diverse faiths and beliefs together for education on religious diversity		OASIS provides self-development, professional enhancement, supports business goals for the Asian Indian employee		Women of AT&T is organized to connect & inspire members to achieve the personal, professional goals
	HACEMOS fosters an environment where people encourage others to succeed professionally, personally and in the community		oxyGEN, our young professionals' group, goal is to attract, develop, and retain our future leaders

Employee Networks at AT&T

	Advocates for Women in Tech encourages and facilitates the recruitment, development, advancement, and retention of women of STEM		AT&T Innovation Network fosters innovation across AT&T and feed TIP ideas and help employees with Patents		Business Professionals provides employees an opportunity to develop leadership skills, personal and professional growth and career related competencies
	Asian Pacific Women's Organization encourages and facilitates the engagement, networking, education and sharing among women of Asia Pacific		AT&T Professional Engineers is committed to the development of Professional Engineers at AT&T		Cybersecurity@Work encourages and facilitates the recruitment, development, advancement, and retention in cybersecurity
	AT&T Europe, Middle East and Africa Women's Network provides opportunities to its members to exchange, learn and grow both professionally and personally		AT&T Women of Business increases awareness, impact, and contributions of women in business in the community		Parents@Work – provide members guidance and support on how to effectively balance family life and priorities with career objectives and work commitment
	AT&T First Responders Network supports our First Responders and partner with external organizations for disaster relief and FirstNet		AT&T Women of Finance encourages development, collaboration and advancement of women in the Finance organization		PULSE of India – brings employees together to volunteer, work on community engagement initiatives, and leadership developments